

CONDITIONAL INHERITABLE WARRANTY

Each Charles Clemes Graphite Fly Rod and Reel is handmade in England to the highest standards using only the finest locally sourced materials, as such all of our rods carry a conditional warranty against breakage due to defects in materials, manufacturing or workmanship for the life of the original purchaser and passed down to a single lineal heir provided they retain ownership of the rod and/or reel and are entered in the Charles Clemes journals, ordinary wear and tear expected. This warranty is limited to the repair or replacement of the item in addition to your statutory rights under the laws of England and Wales.

Prior to leaving the workshop each fly rod and reel is carefully examined by our staff. However, should any defect in workmanship appear, simply book an appointment at or return the entire rod securely packaged and insured to your nearest dealer:

A return shipping, handling and mailing insurance charge may be applied to all repairs. This warranty does not cover lost sections or lost rods and/or reels nor does it include internal breakages. The owner of the rod and/or reel is responsible for the cost of sending the item to be repaired. We will endeavor to return all goods to you within 3 to 6 weeks, please note that materials and colour may vary from those used on the original depending on the date of manufacture.

This warranty does not cover damage caused by use for other than its intended purpose or by others through attempted modifications or customization of the finished rod and/or reel. Under no circumstances will Charles Clemes, London, Ltd accept or assume any responsibility or liability for incidental or consequential damages related to or arising from ownership or use of the rod or reel.

Should a damaged rod or reel not fall under the conditional warranty repairs will be approved and undertaken by consultation.
